Why Cork?

Rich in history and tradition yet increasingly urbane and sophisticated, the ever evolving city of Cork has a unique blend of contemporary style and old world charm. Pedestrian laneways and narrow streets, small boutiques, gourmet food shops and a host of interesting pubs and clubs fan out across the city. Cork is renowned for its culinary flair and vibrant cultural scene. A strong festival programme attracts the best of film, jazz, folk, literary and musical talent year round. European Capital of Culture in 2005 and listed by the Lonely Planet Guide among the top ten cities for 'Best in Travel in 2010', you certainly won't be short of things to do!

Cork is the destination for your next conference, meeting, incentive or sporting event;

- Over 3,000 rooms available across a selection of internationally acclaimed 3 Star, 4 Star and 5 Star hotels.
- World class conference facilities for up to 1,000 delegates.

- 1100km of coastline.
- A diverse range of gala dinner options from a former 19th century prison to a whiskey distillery.
